“ Colleen always had a smile for me. She was a wonderful Christian woman that loved her family above all. She never had a cross word for me and helped me through some very trying times in my life. She always told me "better days are ahead" and I will never forget her. At the last family reunion I was able to attend she was the first of my cousins that I sought out because of the love that I felt for her. What a wonderful woman and our loss is definitely heavens gain.
