“ I remember Adrian when he was a little guy at the Kingston School. One year I taught his little brother, Ben, in 2nd grade. Every single day Adrian would find me on the playground, in the lunchroom, somewhere, and he always asked me the same question. How's Ben??? I would say Ben is doing great or I'd share something Ben said or did in the classroom that day. With a big smile on his face, Adrian would say, That's good!!! The King kids had good parents. The Kings were good kids growing up. They really loved each other and watched out for each other. I will always picture Aiden as he was in grade school, small in size but with a big heart, beautiful red hair, and a smile that would light up a room. My love and prayers goes to his brothers and sisters. I'm proud to call Adrian and all of you my cousins. May God comfort you as only He can.
