My condolences to randy and kathy may GOD carry you both. I loved aneta and i have a few stories but the one id like to share is i used to buy young heifers from her and james and this particular one she sold me was 8 months old and was black baldy shecwas very cslm and i was smitten with her i bought her brought her home and its the only heifer i ever bought thst i felt so confident of her cslmness that i put her straight into pasture with other heifers and she walked around like she had been there before and just went right into herd and settled in. She turned out to b one of the very best cows i had on the place. I also went to church with aneta and family and aneta taught me about bottle babies. She loved the LORD i will miss seeing her different places may GOD B WITH YALL
