“ Anita was my big sister. Though life took her on a difficult path and we were apart for many years, she was always in my heart. ”

*When she needed care, she came back home. Our time together was brief, but I'm thankful for every moment.
Love you sister! You are at peace now.*

“ Anita was my big sister. One of my favorite memories from when I was little is when she lived in the house next door to ours. I'd go over sometimes, and she would ask if I was hungry. She usually made me Campbell's Bean with Bacon soup—my favorite. :) Love you, big sister! I'm so glad I got to see you again. I know you're with Mom now. ”

“ So many memories of your younger years. Like the nights I spent with you and you made no baked cookies. So good!! Many challenging days but you were so loved by your family. I am so grateful that the Lord brought you back to Springdale so that I had a chance to spend time with you before you left this challenging world. You are at peace now with mom! Till we meet again, love you sis!

“ I love you so much Momma. I always laugh when I think about the time you ate half that sausage pizza when I was able to move you back to Springdale a month before you passed. You were so tiny - and had such a big appetite.
