

Barbara Fultz

August 29, 1944 - August 18, 2021

Barbara Jean Fultz, 76, of Bella Vista; passed away Wednesday, August 18, 2021, at Mercy Hospital, Rogers. She was born Tuesday, August 29, 1944, at Kingston; to Berl Truman and Delsa Louise Deathreraage.

Barbara married Carroll Gene Fultz on Tuesday, October 3, 1961; at Greenfield, California. Growing up, she was not referred to as Barbara Fultz but as Mom. Mom always had a bed and food to eat for everyone she met. She will be sorely missed by all.

A Christian woman in this world is easy recognized, you can tell by looking at her fruits and see it in her eyes. The path she takes is not well used. Her feet are often sore, and yet she goes on walking to share the gospel more. The world is always hurting her to try and slow her down, but she walks with a stronger king who wears a brighter crown. They tell her she must answer for things that she has done. But she just smiles and tells them we'll see when Jesus comes.

Barbara was predisposed in death by her loving husband of 50 years Carroll Gene, siblings; Willa Stroud, Joyce Neal, Jimmy Deatherage, grandchildren: Jessica Stroud, Jonathan Stroud, and Kenny Fultz and two great grandchildren.

She has one surviving sister, Glenna Heath, of Gravette Arkansan; five surviving children; Laura Lee Foster and Betty Swem of the home, Karen Buth (Chuck) of Bentonville, David Fultz (Kim) and John (Tamara) Fultz of Perryville; ten grandchildren, Keith Foster, Karl Buth, Krista Bulkeley, Joseph (Rachael) Buth, April (Jerry) Bailey, Jacob (Hannah) Stroud, Samantha Fultz, Levi Fultz, Moriah Fultz, Luke Fultz and fourteen great-grandchildren. Graveside services will be 2:00 PM, Monday, August 23, 2021, at Gobbler Cemetery with Michael Battenfield officiating. Pallbearers will be Levi Fultz, Gabriel Buth, Morgan Buth, Karl Buth, Jaxon Buth, Joseph Buth, Jacob Stroud, Luke Fultz. “ Everyone always says wonderful things about you when you pass away. This is a different situation. Because this person was extraordinary. My grandmother was the most humble extraordinary person I have ever met.

Like a hidden gem, to the world's eye she would be overlooked. But she was the whole world to a lot of people, including every child that crossed her path. And when we became grown, that complete adoration for her that we had as children never left our hearts. She was bigger than life, forgiving, caring, generous, and fun. And a tiny bit crazy (the good kind). She did what she wanted to do and she said what she wanted to say and she was bold enough not to care too much about what others thought about that. She made everything feel like an adventure. And when you were with her, she made every bad thing just go away. Excuse my French but in short, she was a badass and didn't take any shit. And she instilled those qualities in her family. She was strong, and capable and confident and we are because she was. Her life was full of catch phrases that will always ring in our ears. Her absence leaves a crater on the earth, a sapped energy that must have been a vibe felt around the globe when she left this planet to go be with my grandfather, and with our Father in heaven. I love her. And though my life is filled with more memories of her than should reasonably fit, it wasn't enough for me. I will meet her in heaven and lean down to kiss her short freckled forehead again. Mam....a proper name used to show respect and authority. Redefined as the embodiment of every emotion all of us felt about her, only we will know the honor behind that title because it was hers. I love you, Mam. Rest.
