

Barbara Ledbetter

February 16, 1940 - January 1, 2021

Barbara Faye Ledbetter, 80, of Huntsville; died Friday, January 1, 2021, at Countryside Assisted Living, Huntsville. She was born Friday, February 16, 1940, at Fayetteville; to Gilbert Fay and Maggie Lee Pennington Boyd. Barbara married John Carl Ledbetter on Friday, September 6, 1957; and together they were parents to two children. She was a homemaker and a member of Drakes Creek Regular Baptist Church. Barbara enjoyed quilting, reading, putting puzzles together, gardening and bird watching. She was also an avid sports fan, cheering on the Eagles and the Razorbacks at every opportunity. Her greatest love was for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, never missing an opportunity to show her love and support for them.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, and her husband, John Carl, to whom she was married for 52 years. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Randy and Patty Ledbetter of Cave Springs; her daughter and son-in-law, Tammy and Jeff Williams of Hindsville; three grandchildren, Jacob Ledbetter, Maggie and Sam Davidson, and JoBeth and Travis Evans, five great-grandchildren, Jaxon Evans, Tiva Evans, John Cole Ledbetter, Drake Davidson and Tinley Rose Davidson; and her brother, Jack Boyd of Hindsville.

Graveside services will be 10:00 AM, Tuesday, January 5, 2021, at Drakes Creek Cemetery with John Napier officiating. Services are entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home and Crematory of Huntsville.

“ I really enjoyed Barbara's company during the years that I had the pleasure of doing her beautiful hair. She always threatened dyeing it and I would just cringe at the thought of it! I don't think she could ever get anyone on board with the idea of dyeing it to my relief! Not only was her hair beautiful but so was she inside and out.
