“ My heartfelt condolences to the entire family. I loved Betty so much! We always had the best conversations at the salon. She would always tell me don't let me leave without my hairspray. I would always show her I had it ready for her when she was ready to checkout. 9 times out of 10 she would ask, are you sure that's the one I use. LOL I promise you Betty that's the one. We always had a good laugh. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. She will be dearly missed. I hope you find have peace today.*Revelation 21:4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever. Rest in peace Ms. Betty.

“ Loving memories, sweet smiles, and kindnesses given, may these bring you joy as you mourn the loss of Betty. One of my favorite watercolor paintings that I have done is a nautilus shell I painted in a class she gave back in the 80's. She was my inspiration for returning to painting after retirement. May God bless and keep you all as you deal with her passing.
