“ I'm so sorry to hear of Bob's passing, but at the same time I rejoice for him knowing he is with the Lord he loves and to whom he dedicated his life on this earth. Bob is more alive than ever before, and I'm sure there is a huge celebration and glad reunion going on in Heaven. I pray that the Lord will embrace you, Kay, and all of his family with comfort and peace as you miss his daily presence in your lives. May He soon replace sorrow and grief with only happy memories and the sure knowledge that you will someday be reunited with your loved one when God calls.

With love and condolences from Diana (Counts) Davis

“ Kay, Mike, Scott, Brenda, Sandy and I want to send our sincere heartfelt blessings to you and your families. You lost a part of all your hearts that can't be replaced. There is one thing that you can hold on to in your sadness and that is Jesus Christ who Bob loved so much. Bob Jones lived Christ in his life. We have so many memories of him. Bob, sandy and i were baptized the same day. One of the memories that is so present in my heart is when I was in need of a friend things looked so bleak, Bob came and visited and called me on the phone. He brought the love of Jesus Christ. In this time of sadness for us all I want to say thank you to the Lord for his life and what he meant to every person he met. May God Bless you all. Kenny and Sandy Bailey.
