

Brenda Laird

August 31, 1967 - August 17, 2021

Brenda Faye Laird, 53, of Huntsville, Arkansas, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, August 17, 2021, at Washington Regional Medical Center, Fayetteville, Arkansas. She was born August 31, 1967, in Downey, California; to Billy and Norma Langley.

She graduated in 1985 from McFarland High School and then went on to attend Antelope Valley College where she had graduated in 2003. She married Ron Laird, the love of her life, on May 10, 2018. She worked at Boston Mountain Rural Health Center as a PSR, displaying how passionate she was about helping others. Brenda lived life to the fullest through the most simple pleasure, whether it was reading, home DIY projects but mostly the time she spent with her family who her world revolved around. She was extremely smart and talented, not to mention a huge Dallas Cowboys fan. There are no words to adequately describe how much she will truly be missed.

Brenda is predeceased by her father, Billy Langley; and her grandmother, Estell Bird. She is survived by her husband, Ron Laird of Huntsville; her two daughters, Jacqueline Palomares and Amanda Ulmer of Bentonville; her mother, Norma Vertrees of Springdale; one brother, and her two grandsons, Jameson Palomares and Hunter McFarlin; and her extended family and friends. Rest in Peace to the most beautiful angel. We love you.

Memorial services will be Saturday, August 28, 2021 at Brashears Funeral Home with Clint Cousins officiating. Services are entrusted to Brashears

Funeral Home and Crematory, Huntsville.

“ Not a day will go by not wondering why . Brenda was a beautiful soul she will not be forgotten loved by so many and cherished by all that had the honor to know her . Brenda was a very special person to me she touch my soul and not to many people get close to me Brenda became a sister from another mother as she would always say we shared a special vibe I will always remember her and I will not forget this special soul. Rest in the light my sweet friend.
