“ Words cannot express the pain and loss that we share with all of you. Although we did not know Caleb well, we were able to see him grow from a boy into the strong, gentle man that he became. While spending Thanksgiving at Susan and Rick's farm almost every year for the last 20+ years, he and his brother were almost always around, in and out, going hunting, or helping around the farm. I pray that the pain of this tragic loss will be replaced in time, by the grace of God, with happy memories and with the knowledge that we will see him again with Jesus in our eternal home.

“ I'm praying for you all 🙏❤️ My boys went to school with Caleb and they were on the shooting team with him. Caleb was such a sweet and big hearted young man. One thing I will always remember about Caleb was the love he had for his family. During shooting competition's he always made sure his mom was taken care of. He made sure his mom was in the shade and checked up on her. That's how I will always remember him. 🙏💖
