“ Even though I did not know Mr. Ledbetter, I do know that losing a loved one in death is painful. However, the Bible does offer comfort and hope. At 2 Cor. 1:3,4, we are told that God is the "God of all comfort." A comforting thought he has provided in the Bible is the hope of seeing our dear loved ones again. This thought can be found at John 5:28,29. Hear Jesus says that he will call and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." We all look forward to this day. Please continue to look to God for comfort at this time by regularly reading his word and praying. I offer you my deepest condolences at the sad time.
