“ Cecelia was a friend of mine, we played FV together...a wonderful person to know, so kind... The last time I spoke with her was a couple of weeks ago, during the horrible tornadoes that ripped through their area..she was afraid, but more concerned about the towns that got hit around her... RIP my friend..many people will be missing your kind ways...

“ The bizarre tragic death of my precious cousin Cecelia is still beyond my comprehension at this point in time. I know she's in a better place along with her loving grandparents, Uncle Lee Alan and Aunt Theresa and with the rest of our family as they greeted her with open arms. I know Cecelia is looking over Carey during this difficult time, and Chris and her adored grandchildren as well. Her love was so deep and she cared for so many, especially her daddy. I cannot imagine what it's going to be like growing old without talking or emailing and sharing our life stories. We had plans to go fishing... So, Cecelia If I make there, we'll have golden fish hooks with the purest of water and the biggest of fish we could ever imagine. I look forward to seein' ya Girly, Girl.

To my family... Linda, Jim, Carey, Chris, Spanky, Caylee Wesley, Jeff, Jeffrey.... (Not to leave anyone out) but many prayers are being prayed over this family for our healing.

Randy, I know you've got to be struggling with the loss of your loving wife, Cecelia and her son Carey's condition... But, thank you for giving her nearly two years of happiness.

“ I cannot find the words to even begin to express my love for Cecelia. She never judged nor condemned. She was always there for me and for it seems everyone. I know she is in heaven waiting on each of us.

I pray for her boys, as my son JT Crawley grew up with them. I pray for us all to somehow be able to cope with the fact that we cannot call out to her and hear her physical voice. But she is in heaven....she is in heaven and will see each of us there.
