“ Mike and Teresa,
With deepest sympathies my heartfelt condolences go out to you and your families. Words fall short of expressing my sorrow for your loss. Regardless of the circumstances or age, one is never really prepared to say that final goodbye to a parent or grandparent. Cecil was a lot of things to many people; he and I shared a special bond to which we knew would last a lifetime, and it has.
I can attest Cecil was 'intensely' proud of his family and their accomplishments. Your Father would not want you to mourn too long. He would ask you remember his smile, and as you do, you'll notice the love in his eyes that will carry you through. Yes, he will be missed tremendously; but he will always live on in your hearts. May your strength prevail to help each of you through this difficult time.
