“ Chuck was the funniest person I ever knew--you were a close second David Gardner--and I still laugh out loud when thinking of him and the great times we had together back in the day. I followed him to Austin and Corpus Christi to play music, and he was always the life of the party. I'll never forget the night he jammed with Bugs Henderson at the Abbey Inn in Dallas, Texas and brought down the house playing his harmonica! I already miss you, Chuck, RIP.

“ My condolences to Chucks family. Everyone loved Chuck especially those of us who played with him in the Heaters in Fayetteville NC. Chuck was one of a kind. The best blues songwriter and true blues guitarist I have ever worked with. Always hoped to jam again but I have hours of live and studio recordings in a box somewhere. RIP my guitar brother and fellow Texan.

“ I have only known Chuck for a short time ; I had the honor of working on a deck and ramp on his front porch. He was kind and generous person and I know he will be missed by all those who learn of his passing. He is in Heaven now and I believe we will meet again. Peace and Love my friend!

“ Rest in peace my Cuz! I have so many fond memories of you and can still see you driving that go-cart down the sidewalk that Uncle Sonny made for you and David, and how you got caught up in the middle of a BB gun war and you were surprisingly caught in crossfire when we were kids, catching you doing a well done song set at Shakey's Pizza Parlor and telling Brenda outloud "Hey that's my cousin up there doing Jim Croce", and how we unexpectedly both realized we were going to the same college when we crossed paths on campus! Fond memories!
