“ Cheyenne came into my son's life at just the right time. She brought him laughter, understanding and love to brighten his days. She would light up the room with her smile! To me she was always a part of my family and sometimes she'd just check on me to see if I was ok or to say HI.....I loved that sweet lady like she was my own and I think she knew it. Yes, Cheyenne, say hello and give a big hug to your Grandpa and my son Jon Fitch. They'll both be glad to see you!

“ I don't have the picture anymore, but I remember when Chey and I met in person for the first time. It was the longest road trip back to Arkansas ever, but we had a blast the whole time. I know we had our fights, but you were always like a sister to me no matter what, I love and miss you Chey, rest easy.
