“ I didn't personally know Clifford but when I heard what had happened, I had to start praying. Clifford shared my granddaughter Brittany's birthday. She died tragically when she was 6 months old in 2004. She would be 13 years old next May 9th. We know the pain....and all I can say is trust JESUS....he is with you now. Look for him for comfort....take each day at a time. Do the things Clifford enjoyed. Do balloon releases...red ones. We do that for our niece Lexie who was 15 years old when she died. I pray for you all... Remember Clifford would want you to be happy!

“ Charlie, Reba, Victoria, and Sierra, I just want you to know how sorry I am about Boo. I know there are no words that can be said to take the pain away, but just know that God's plans are grander than our own and Clifford is an angel in heaven now. I'm keeping all of you in my prayers, praying for God's comfort, strength, and understanding as you face these difficult days and weeks ahead. Clifford had an amazing impact on my life, and I will treasure precious memories of him forever, always wanting to hold my hand when he got on and off the bus, and giving me that big beautiful smile! I will never forget him!

“ It's taken me a day to try and find the words to say and I still don't know if I have the right words to say! Reba, I'm so incredibly sorry to hear about Clifford, it breaks my heart and messes with my head real real bad!! I know that he's in an awesome place and with alot of awesome people and I hope that that can ease your heart a little bit!! Even though I wasn't around him very much, he was my family and I loved and cared about him and I will miss him so much!! You guys are forever in my thoughts and prayers!! I love you and the girls and Charlie so much!! RIP Boo!! You are so incredibly missed!!

“ We did not know Clifford, but we regret the sorrow you feel - we grieved the loss of two sons in their 20's. We can tell you that as time passes you will be able to remember more of the good times and dwell less on the loss of Clifford. We found that each person grieves in a different way and at different times, so we encourage each of you to allow for those differences in your families. We are of the Christian faith and as we dealt with our pain we came to understand that God is still sovereign. May you find comfort as you walk through this "valley of the shadow of death" and may friends share their good memories of Clifford with you.

“ you are more than missed and never forgotten, because your influence lives on in so many of us. The memories of our times with you live on in our hearts. Your sweet smile, your caring heart, your childlike innocence was always so refreshing to be around. Now, you are living in heaven, in perfect peace, in the presence of God waiting for the rest of us to arrive. A day is as a thousand years to the Lord, so we will be there soon! May God bless your family and closest friends who miss you more than words can say. Somehow, always, His grace is sufficient.
