

Cressa Dawn Scates

September 19, 2001 - December 15, 2017

Cressa Dawn Scates, 16, of Huntsville, went to be with her Savior Jesus on Friday, December 15, 2017. Cressa was born on September 19, 2001, in Johnson AR, to Shannon and Chelsi Scates. Survivors include: her father and mother, Shannon and Chelsi, two sisters Shayli and Bethani, and one brother Jaden; grandparents Nestor and Tina Leon, and Don and Joyce Scates; great-grandmother Ilah Harris; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. Cressa is remembered as being very spunky, for loving to engage with people everywhere, for being lovingly affectionate, liberal with compliments, sparkly and fun. A celebration of Cressa's life will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 20 at 2 o'clock, Huntsville First Assembly of God, with Pastor Alex Foster officiating and Brashears Funeral Home assisting.

“ Even though I cannot be there today (12/20/17), I will celebrate Cressa's life with you! She was a sweet child growing up and I'm sure it carried on as she grew. My heart breaks for you, her family, and pray for your comfort today and in the years that follow. Much love to you all! Rick and Day Kelley

“ To Chelsi, Shannon, and Family, I am Tina's cousin who attends the Harris Reunion every August with Tina and Nestor. Tina let me know about your great loss on Sunday. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time and will continue to be. I well remember when Chelsi came and sang at the Reunion several years ago. One of the songs was "In the Garden". Her singing was angelic and beautiful. I can see a strong resemblance in Cressa's picture to her mother and grandmother, Tina. Tina and Nestor have been faithful to come to the reunion. We miss Jack a lot. He was one of the mainstays that has kept the Harris Log Cabin and reunion alive and going. Prayers and many thoughts are coming your way! Love, Ramona C. Moore 726 West 29th St. Higginsville, MO 64037
