

Dale Lyn Baker

January 4, 1950 - April 26, 2026

Dale Lyn Baker, 76, of Huntsville; passed away Sunday, April 26, 2026, at Meadowview Healthcare and Rehab. He was born Wednesday, January 4, 1950, at Santa Maria, California; to Clyde and Geneva Nevlin Ryals Baker.

Dale was a devoted father of five and worked as a truck driver. He found joy in simple pleasures like visiting the horse races and spending time at the casino. More than anything, he cherished his grandchildren and the moments he shared with them. Known for his strong will, Dale was also incredibly generous—always willing to go the extra mile for others, especially his family.

Dale was preceded in death by his parents, Clyde and Geneva Baker; and two sisters, Virginia Ditches and Sandy Baker.

He is survived by two sons and one daughter-in-law, Joseph and Sam Baker, of Berryville; and Aaron Baker, of Fayetteville; and three daughters and one son-in-law, Cassie Baker, of Fayetteville; Tammy DeLaMotte, of Springdale; Anna Carter, of Marble, and Steven Fain. Dale is also survived by four grandchildren, Alyssa Baker, Trinity Grigg, Joshua Fain, and Ivy Fain; and one brother, Travis Baker. Cremation is entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home and Crematory of Huntsville.
