“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose the again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie

“ We just found out about Dean's passing. We are so sorry. We had been talking earlier this month of trying to get down to Arkansas to see everyone and visit the family cemetery. My dad especially wanted to see Dean. He was his favorite cousin and always enjoyed talking to him on the phone. I wish I would have pushed him a little harder last summer to take a trip and go visit Dean. He has a special place in all of our hearts. He was so nice and friendly. I have a picture of both him and my dad sitting on Granny Carlock's headstone after my Grandma Ethel's funeral. Not sure if Granny would have appreciated that:) We now have even more reason to get to Huntsville. Sorry we didn't know of this sooner- my dad would have been there for Dean.
