“ I remember Danny from growing up on Ball Creek. I have many fond memories of my youth & childhood at Ball Creek. Japton, Georgetown, Drakes creek. The many baseball games on Sunday's afternoons where everyone hung out, meet. I can say one things we had some great ball players from those communities. The Watkins girls introduced me to softball at age 12.

“ I remember visiting as a very young child. I was totally enamored of Uncle Dannie. I followed him wherever I could. One day he was laying on the grass on a bit of a hillside. I was right next to him of course! I decided to share my bottle of Bubble Up with him. Being little I just poured it in his face— he was sound asleep! Boy did he jump up quick and he was a-sputtering’ to beat the band!
