“ Big Brother. you are going to be missed so, so much. Thank you for always being there for me. It will never be the same here without you just across the driveway. One thing I'm going to miss is you coming over at night, looking out back door for deer, and then you'd say, "Sis get me on a game." I would get you on your slot game and we would set here for 2 or 3 hours talking. You will be loved and missed, Always.
