Good memories. Wish we could go back in time. Can’t remember who won(probably my brother)LOL such fun. I’ve missed seeing you through the years David. But I’ll always have the memories. Thanks. “ So this is difficult because exactly one year ago today, David and I were perusing around the Star Wars part of Disney with the wives in tow. He was pointing out all this cool stuff that I didn’t know about. We were kids in the candy store and his enthusiasm was infectious! He and I were big Star Wars geeks, though he was way more knowledgeable than I. David...you will always be my favorite Jedi!
Much love to Beej and the fam!

“ David not only loved his wife Brenda...he adored her. It was not unusual that he would reach out to ask that I watch over her at work if she didn't have a good night's sleep, or she just didn't feel the best. BUT, that certainly went both ways! Brenda would ensure David was keeping up on his daily routine to ensure he could be the best David every single day. These acts of love is what set their love story apart from the rest. Their life together was tender, loving, and filled with so many funny and touching milestones! Although his Earthly life was cut short, and we will miss him dearly - Brenda and David's daily adoration will carry through to that day when they meet again!
We love you David!!
