“ To Dennis' family, we're so sorry for your loss. I saw Dennis just about every day at work for several years now. He was a great friend and a great man. He loved our kids like his own and always enjoyed talking to them and teaching them things. Dennis would often come get raccoons from us and our daughter would ask him if he'd paint their fingernails before he turned them loose. Dennis would play along with her and say yes I will try but I think he'll scratch me! What a precious person. Thank you for sharing him with us. Much love to you all during this difficult time.

“ I hope each of you kids know how much you meant to Dennis. Even though you didn't have the same last name you were his kids. He bragged on you guys always and was so proud of each of you. Dennis was a friend, a brother and father all wrapped up in one to me. He was one of the gruffest people at times when we worked together, but for every ounce of gruff in him there was a pound of kindness for his family and friends. I've never known a greater friend than Dennis Donahoe.
