

Dillon Hayes

March 1, 1996 - September 12, 2015

Dillon Hayes, 19, of Huntsville, Arkansas, died September 12, 2015 near Sarcoxie, Missouri. He was born March 1, 1996 at Fayetteville, Arkansas, the son of Guy and Carrie Huber Hayes. He was a dairy farmer for Emerald Dairy in Stark City, Missouri and a Christian. Dillon never met a stranger and would give the shirt off his back to help someone out. He will be missed much but we know God has his reasons. Survivors include: his parents of Huntsville, Arkansas; two brothers, Shane Huber of Fayetteville, Arkansas and Utah Hayes of the home; four sisters, Rose "Sissy" Marie Hayes, Cheyenne Hayes, Josie Hayes and Kelsey Hayes, all of the home and a host of friends. Graveside services will be held at 2:00 P. M. Wednesday, September 16, at the Mossville Cemetery with The Reverend Robert Huber officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Brashears Funeral Home www.brashearsfuneralhome.net of Huntsville, Arkansas.

“ I want to send our condolences to all of Dillon's family. I know the shock and pain of losing a son so suddenly and there are no words to ease any of that. The only thing I can offer is my prayers that God will help you through this. I had not know Dillon for long, but he always had a smile and a friendly word. I always enjoyed talking with him and it's so hard to know that we will never see that smile again. I'm not saying this to cause you any more pain, but to let you know that many people will miss him and remember him for a very long time.

“ We have no words for what you are feeling, our prayer is that God surrounds you with his love and comforts as only he can. Dillon helped us a lot in the past. He was always very nice and showed lots of patience with Daniel. He will be missed.
