“ So sorry! Don was such a force of nature. He made me laugh with his positive humorous personality. He was one of the benefits of my years as the law firm. When he walked thru the door you knew they day was going to be great. Rhonda my heart is with you. My short time at the Oncology clinic afforded me the opportunity to see him again. He was one of Dads very favorites. He will be missed.

“ Don will be missed by many. I think of all of you from time to time. There will be days that will be very hard to face but always look to the Lord in everything for he is with you every step of the way if you will let him guide you. Remember our loss is heavens gain.

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. 2 Corinthians 4:18.

We will keep you and the family in our prayers. Blessings to you all!

*I want to share these words by Randy Alcorn
Our parting is not the end of our relationship, only an interruption.
Our loved ones are experiencing the joy of Christ presence in a place SO wonderful Christ called it Paradise! And one day, we're told, in a magnificent reunion, they and we "will be with The Lord forever. Therefore encourage each other with these words."
I look forward to that magnificent reunion! Death has lost it's sting when a believer has been called home. We are praying for peace for the Anderson's*

“ Words always feel empty, just like our hearts when we lose a loved one. Parents aren't supposed to bury children, and wives and family are left with a gaping hole that only Jesus can heal. May He be with you in these tough days ahead. If there is the tiniest thing I might be able to help with, please don't hesitate to ask. Don will be missed by many and I choose to remember a $3 milk shake and a grin thanking me for being a friend..God be with you all I ask in Jesus' name Amen
