“ Jamaica was one of the first friends I made when my family moved back to Madison County after my mother passed away. When my father remarried I stayed the weekend with Donna and all six of her girls while he was on his honeymoon. That weekend I was treated to Donna's Indian Tacos oh man they were so freaking good. I enjoyed eating everything she cooked anytime I stayed over. That one weekend I learned how mighty a small woman could be as well as how to be a GREAT mother one day. Because I know not one of her girls should have any doubt that she loved them with everything that she was. She was so proud of her girls and her grand babies. Having them all together always brought her so much joy. For her family my heart is breaking because I know how losing your mother feels it's a heartbreak that not even time will heal. Girls lean on each other to make it through one day at a time. Share precious memories often so that her memory never dies. May God ease your pain in ways that only he can. I send my love and condolences to her entire family.

“ My sympathy goes out to the family. Donna was a great person and a loving Mama. What many don't know about Donna, was her dedication to the safety and health of others. She led the plant safety team for over 12 years and was the driving force in reducing needless occupational injuries and illnesses. She was an active member of the Arkansas Department of Labor safety advisory committee as well as one of the founders of the Arkansas VPP team. She attended many OSHA conferences and represented our facility and the State of Arkansas with utmost honor. The family will miss her dearly, but so will all of the friends she has made in the safety and health realm. Rest in Peace Donna, and Thank you

“ So many memories working with Donna on floats, kids nights, rodeo entrances, and just getting together to reminisce. One of my favorite memories is Donna taking my girls, grandchildren and me to a Powwow. Donna danced with my granddaughter, Chloe, in her arms, I believe it was a Shawl dance. I will miss my good friend. Keep your cherished memories close in your hearts. God Bless All of You!
