

Doris Rogers

March 11, 1943 - February 12, 2021

Doris June Rogers, 77, of Japton, passed away February 12, 2021 at Washington Regional Medical Center in Fayetteville, surrounded by her loving family. She was born March 11, 1943, at Witter; to her proud parents, Vance and Virgie Ogden.

She was an active member of the Mountain Grove Church of Christ. She worked at Bearbrand Hosiery and then Baldwin Piano and Organ Company in Fayetteville. After her retirement from working in town, she worked and enjoyed life on the farm with her husband, Paul (her partner and best friend for life). She enjoyed fishing, sewing, crafts and beautifying her home and farm; but her greatest enjoyment was being with her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Vance and Virgie; her brother, Kenneth; and son, Darrell. She is survived by her husband of almost 60 years, Paul Hayden Rogers of the home, who she wed on May 10, 1961; two daughters and sons-in-law; Twila and Steve Tackett of Japton; and Karen and David Ogden of Combs; one daughter-in-law, Sheila Rogers Stark of St. Paul; ten grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Funeral Services will be 10:00 am, Friday, February 19, 2021 at Brashears Funeral Home with Brandon Rogers and Jeff Thomas officiating. Due to COVID-19, please practice social distancing and masks are required.

Pallbearers will be her loving grandsons: Chris Tackett, Ben Ogden, Daven Ogden, Zac Rogers, Nathan Rogers, Jason Ogden, and Kaleb Rogers.

Interment will follow services at Ledbetter Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions to the Gospel Tracts International ministry would be greatly appreciated. Services are entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home and Crematory, Huntsville.

“ Paul, I grieve with you in your loss of this very lovely lady. It was a distinct pleasure to have participated in her care for over 4 years.
My prayers for peace and comfort go for you and your family.
Knowing she knew HIM gives me peace. God bless you all!
