“ I am so sorry to learn of Dorothy's death. We didn't know until after the funeral. I really liked Dorothy. When I moved to Kingston, she was so nice to me from the first day we met. Of course, Curtis was lucky enough to know her all his life. We didn't see her often, but we will miss her.

“ Dorothy was an angel on earth who never said a bad thing about anyone, who wanted nothing but happiness for her children, who loved deeply with all her heart and from whom I haved learned what love truly is. She has now returned to her home in heaven to be with her husband Raymond and sons Lyndall and & Jackey. I know they were there to greet her-where she will suffer no more. My sweet mother-in-law and beloved mother to David who never passed an opportunity to be with her.
