“ Dwight was a caring person. He had a beautiful spirit and was so full of life! His laughter was infectious. I remember him teaching me how to change my oil in my car, something I have never forgotten and still do to this day. He was a great family friend. I am almost certain that he is probably hot-rodding and spinning donuts in heaven right now. Sorry for his loss! Forever in our hearts! ~ Sherrie Olson~

“ Snook and Dean borrowed my Cobra Mustang a couple of times when they were probably 16. Luckily I didn't hear the stories until years later. He was always fun to be around. If you were in a lousy mood it didn't last long. We was so fun and orny. I'm so sorry for your loss and pray for your comfort, peace and healing as you traverse through this emotional time.
