“ We are very sorry to hear about your loved one and want to give you our sincere condolences. Steve and I lost a sibling recently and we wanted to share with all of you some of the comfort that was given to us.

Jesus Christ promised: " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5: 28, 29)

Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

"No resident will say: 'I am sick.'" "At that time the eyes of the blind ones will be opened, and the very ears of the deaf ones will be unstopped. At that time the lame one will climb up just as a stag does, and the tongue of the speechless one will cry out in gladness." Isaiah 33:24; 35:5, 6.

There will no longer be obituary columns to bring us sadness. Instead, there may well be just the opposite, announcements of newly resurrected ones. But no matter how great the promises are we still miss them!

Steve and I were given this link to a brochure that has helped. You hear about others who went through this and how they were able to get to a better place. It is called When Someone You Love Dies and its audio so its nice to listen to. I know some of you may not know how to copy and paste this link so please have someone help you. We are with you through this difficult time!
