“ Susie else the sweetest little bird. She was tiny but mighty and I loved her. We didn't see each other often but when we did we made up for lost time. She gave the biggest hugs and always let me know she loved me.

She dealt with cancer better than anyone I knew and fought it like a champ! You still won Susie! You are free and in a better life and I can't wait to see you again for one of those big hugs from my tiny friend! Rest in Jesus little bird.

Condolences and prayers for all of Susie's family and friends
