“ I am so sorry to hear of Emma's passing. We were such good neighbors and friends in our youth. One of my remembrances was one year when I was sick. It was a Sunday and my birthday (I think I was 13). My dad was a preacher and he and my mom had duties, but mom worried about my being alone all day. She went up to see Jewell and asked if Emma could come down and stay with me until they got home late that night. She spent all day with me. We had a good time and I almost forgot how sick I was. I am so glad she was my friend. We shared many good times together. I will be remembering all of you in my prayers.
