

Esther Jung Un Kim

March 11, 1937 - September 10, 2024

Esther Jung Un Kim, 87, of Arlington Heights, Illinois passed away Tuesday, September 10, 2024, at Countryside Assisted Living, Huntsville, Arkansas. She was born Thursday, March 11, 1937, at Seoul, South Korea; to Sangchul Lee and Okbong Woo.

Esther met her former husband in Germany, and together they moved to the United States in 1968. She was a devoted mother to two children, Julia and Walter. A kind and nurturing soul, Esther worked as a Registered Nurse for over 35 years. Her faith as a Christian was important to her, and she found joy in simple things, like taking peaceful walks and picking flowers. Esther especially loved spending time with her grandchildren, always looking after them with love and care. Selfless and gentle, she was known for her dedication to others, always putting their needs before her own.

Esther was preceded in death by her parents two sisters, and two brothers.

She is survived by her son, Walter Kim of Arlington Heights, Illinois; a daughter, Mitchell (Joseph) of Farmington, Arkansas; four grand-children Kaleb Mitchell, Noah Mitchell, Micah Mitchell, and Elijah Mitchell all of Farmington, Arkansas; and many nieces and nephews in Korea.

Services are entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home of Huntsville.
