“ Mom and I were talking about Fern last night on the phone. When Mom and Dad were first married, they lived at Liberty and F J and Fern also lived over there and they all went to church together at Liberty. One Sunday after church, not long after Mom and Dad were married, they went home to eat dinner with F J and Fern. Mom said that Fern had the best home-made angel food cake for dessert that day. Mom was 17 at the time and now almost 80 and she said that was still one of the best cakes she ever ate in her life. I wanted to share that little memory with the family. I am sure you have all eaten many good meals at her table. Maybe even a home-made angel food cake.

“ To Fern's loved ones.
I remember meeting Fern when we first moved to Kingston (so many years ago, now) and realized she was a truly sweet, lovely lady.

I am so sorry you lost her, I know you and Kingston will be remembering her for many, many years.

May God be with you all.

“ Fern was a wonderful friend and a really good neighbor. My fondest memory of both her and F.J. was that when they lived close to us, they could detect when mom was baking bread and would be there to pay a visit as soon as it was out of the oven.

“ It's hard to believe that Fern is gone. Always enjoyed talking to her so much and she was always so happy and had a smile. She taught my boys in Sunday School when they were little and always kept up with what they are doing now. I will really really miss Fern when I go to church at Kingston but I know she is singing away and going strong in Heaven and it is more beautiful than ever with Fern there. Our loss is Heaven's gain.

“ We're so sorry for your loss. Fern was always so "up and at it" that it's hard to realize that she is gone. I shared many fun and interesting moments with her while taking care of Hope. The years get away from us so fast and we are left with only memories and I am sure you boys have many good ones of your mom.
