

Ewellene McConnell

May 10, 1927 - October 14, 2022

Ewellene Seals McConnell, 95, of Huntsville, passed away Friday, October 14. She was born May 10, 1927, at McConnell's Chapel on a farm south of Huntsville to the late Ewell (Bug) and Alma Jackson Seals.

Ewellene attended school at McConnell's Chapel in her early years and she later attended school in Huntsville. She graduated from Huntsville High School in 1945.

After high school on September 12, 1946, Ewellene married her husband, James P. McConnell. They had over 58 years together before he preceded her in death on March 4, 2005. Ewellene and James began their marriage on a farm near Aurora and they later moved to Huntsville where they spent their remaining years together on Parrott Drive.

Ewellene's life reflected her love for God. She faithfully attended church every week. She loved to sing and always participated in the choir where she would sing the alto part. Ewellene was a member of the Huntsville Freewill Baptist Church where she became famous for her delicious cinnamon rolls.

Ewellene's life was a great example for the family as she loved and cared for them. Holidays were a special time for the family when she would prepare a meal fit for a king. She not only cared for her family but she cared for her neighbors and friends by preparing food for them and transporting them from place to place. Ewellene loved to work in her garden. Every year she would grow a vegetable garden and preserve much of what she grew. Ewellene also loved to fish. Her favorite outing was to go to Tablerock Lake and fish for black bass. She was a competitive fisherman and always tried to catch the most fish.

Ewellene was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, James; and two sisters, Narene Parson and Annette Johnson.

Left to cherish her memory are two sons, Phil McConnell and Jill of Benton; Lanny McConnell and Lori of Huntsville; one sister, Lorene Faddis of Springdale; five grandchildren; ten great grandchildren; one great-great grandson; numerous nieces and nephews; and many friends.

Services will be Friday, October 21, at 2:00 p.m. with visitation beginning at 1:00 p.m. at Brashears Funeral Home. The Rev. John Wimberly and the Rev. Scott Brandon will be officiating. Burial will follow at the Aurora Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Josh Danish, Drew McConnell, Kaleb McConnell, Jackson Danish, Dylan Wimberly, and Jayden Wimberly.

The family would like to say a special thanks to the staff at Countryside Assisted Living for their care of Ewellene for the past five years. Services are entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home and Crematory of Huntsville.

“ I will never forget Ewellene and her sweet spirit. She kept an immaculate House and yard. One time she helped me clean all the chairs in the fellowship hall of our church even though she was older than many. There is a pillow in her pew and I think of her every time I see it.
