“ A great memory of visiting the Milligan farm in the 1940's. My dad Henry and Clara Milligan Ellerman---born in St Paul -visited and stayed there a few days around 1959. Clara worked with my mother in Chicago. In the 1930's both took several trips to the farm ---riding horses. They had fun. I remember walking across the street to see the White River and got a lot of jigger bites! Clara returned 'home' and is buried in Madison Donald Voegeli
