“ Throughout the past twenty years or so I got to know Floyd well. He was always around to help me repair a flat or pull me out of the mud just to name a few things. Floyd you will be missed, and Venus Mountain won't be the same without you. Your stories will continue to live on when I tell my kids about them and your life. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. ”

“ Great Grandpa Floyd was an honorable man. He was full of wisdom. Loved to watch him watch his great grand children play. He said he looked forward to giving them a snack when they got off the bus & watched for them to come outside in the mornings. He made a mean pan of cornbread for get togethers. Lived a good farm life. He will be missed.

He always treated our daughter & our family with respect & kindness. He was loved. He & Helen loved to go to VFW. He said to me once, "miss her". Now you are with those you loved & missed. Rest high on that mountain, your work on earth is done.

“ I only knew Floyd a few short years. But I thought he was very thoughtful and kind. I respected him very much. He also made GREAT squirrel dumplings! I'm sure Jesus said "Welcome home".
