“Cliff, I am one that knows that words do little to comfort you at this precise moment in time. Know however, words, your faith in God, the touches of your friends and acquaintance's get you through as time comes and goes in the days and weeks to come. Also know, many are thinking of you now and over the weeks to come. You will never know who they are, but so many will be praying aloud for you and your family, many will stop for a moment during their day and just wonder how you are doing, and some will pray often in private. Cliff, you are a part of us, remember that. You are not alone. God bless and watch over you more than ever in the days to come.
