“ I am Jessi Watson's mom, our children went to high school together. We lost our son Garrett when he was 15 1/2 years old. I am writing just to say how very sad I am for you & your family. It is such a tragic, unending hurt when this happens. Jessi spoke of Moss a lot & she really loved him. My deepest sympathy to all of you, I am very sorry. I will pray for strength for you & may Moss RIP.

“ Many Expressions of Sympathy,to Garett's families,it is so heart-breaking to loose any lovedone,especially when our children,go home sooner than their parents,we lost our son,Grandparents down,its hard to even try to explain emotions & wonder why? But Garrett was a Flower picked for Heavens Special Bokay,and hopefully we will all see our Bokays again someday,when its our time,Just hang onto all those wonderful,happy memories,that will comfort the low moments,he is right there with you,more than you know,if you let him help uplift your emotions & sorrow,,but please know,,you are thought of by many,,whom know what walking in those shoes really feels like,,we know many others in your family have had to deal with many major health problems,so may God Be With You Always! Your in our Prayers & Thoughts,,even though we have some health issues we may not get to attend,we will try our best,we love & care about all of you! Carson,Judy,Gary,& families,,God be with you!
