

Gary "Butch" Bolinger

October 19, 1945 - December 27, 2020

Gary "Butch" Howard Bolinger, 75, of Huntsville; died Sunday, December 27, 2020, at Mercy Hospital, Rogers. He was born Friday, October 19, 1945, at Prairie Grove; to George Howard and Mary Josephine Sparks Bolinger. Butch married Minta Joye Snow on Saturday, March 6, 1965 at Huntsville, AR; and together they were parents to two children. He was a businessman who owned and operated War Eagle Western Store for 41 years. One of the last of the old cowboys, a pillar of the community, and a gentle man; Butch was known for always shaking your hand, opening the door for ladies, and tipping his hat. He was a past member of the International Pro Rodeo Association, served as the President of the Madison County Rodeo Board for 13 years, and founded the Cowboy Division of Fellowship of Christian Athletes of NWA.

Butch pastored several churches in northwest Arkansas, including Pilgrim's Rest, Cobb Creek, Berryville Freewill Baptist, and Astounding Grace Church. Butch was proudest of his ministry, pastoring to those who didn't have a church and reaching the unreachable. He ministered to those in jail, serving as chaplain for the Madison County Jail for 12 years, as easily as those stopping to visit at the saddle shop. (He even performed weddings there.) He was also appointed as District Jail Inspector by Governor Mike Huckabee and was voted the "Nicest Man in Madison County." Butch loved his family and friends, and will be dearly missed by the many whose lives he touched in the community. Butch was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, Jeffrey Bolinger; and one sister, Carolyn Cline. He is survived by his wife, Joye

Bolinger of the home; one son and daughter-in-law, Bret and Kim Bolinger of Springdale; one daughter and son-in-law, Amy and Rick Culver of Springdale; two granddaughters, Katelyn Slane of Fayetteville; and Makenna Bolinger of Springdale; four nephews, Bobby and Jenney Wilson of Huntsville; Landon and Amanda Bolinger of Conway; Tim and Sheri Owens of Fayetteville; and Craig and Chris Owens of Nashville, Tennessee; one niece, Jordan and Andre Barrows of Springdale; several great nephews and great nieces, and a host of friends. Butch will lie in state at Brashears Funeral Home 8:00-12:00 noon, Tuesday, December 29, 2020. Funeral Services will be 2:00 PM, Tuesday, December 29, 2020, at Astounding Grace Church, Hindsville, with Bill Anderson officiating. Due to COVID-19, please practice social distancing, masks are required and will be worn in honor of the staff at Mercy Medical Center who took such great care of Butch. Services will be live streamed on the Astounding Grace Facebook Page; and for those who wish to remain in their vehicles and listen to the service, it will be broadcast on 89.1 FM in the parking lot of the church. Pallbearers will be Justin Laird, Floy Bob Cartmell, Jonathan Wagner, Rick Evans, Bobby Wilson, and Greg Slane. Honorary pallbearers will be the Deacons of Astounding Grace Church. Interment will immediately follow services at Huntsville Cemetery. Services are entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home and Crematory of Huntsville.

“ Joye and Family: So sad hearing about my Buddy, Butch, who helped this old State Trooper get settled at Madison County, in 1969. When he preached Jeen's funeral in 2007, I knew that the days were getting longer and the years were getting shorter. He was indeed a great Cowboy! J.P.

“ I wanted to send my prayers to all of you. Butch was a great person who I confided in a lot as a teen for advice to make right choices and helped me in many ways. I treasured him as if he was a father figure for years. Bret "Thumper" and I were friends for many years until we both married and moved on with our adult lives. He was loved by so many and I pray for endurance until you can see each other again.

“ Such sweet, kind gentle soul. Always funny, always kind words, kids loved him & felt at home in his store. Our grandkids would need a pair of boots, we would take them down, say "Butch will fix you up, just tell him what you like" & send them in without us because we knew meeting Butch & having him help them pick out a pair of boots & putting it on our bill was an experience & fun with Butch & Joye by his side. He will be missed & cherished & remembered & loved forever. God hold you ALL in His arms now & days ahead because I know the hurt must be deep & painful & for that I am so very sorry. Our hearts, hugs & love goes out to you. 💕💕🙏

“ Joye, Bret and Amy,
You are in my heart as you grieve Butch's death and celebrate his amazing life. He and Mike had a running joke about how many times he could repair Mike's Redwing boots purchased in 1973. I think he kept Mike working in them till almost 2000!
We will all miss Butch.

“ So heartbreaking to hear of Butch's passing. I'm sure he is pain free riding into the beautiful sunset in Heaven with all his family and friends who have passed before him. We are all sending prayers for comfort and love to Joye, Amy, Bret and family. Butch's parents were best friends with our mom and dad since before I was born, so we all grew up thinking he was our big brother, we have always loved him like our family, and will miss him dearly.
