“ Lee was a wonderful man with a tremendous gift for making others laugh. I remember many times being down there when I worked for Tysons and my sides would hurt from some of Lee's stories. My deepest sympathies.

“ My sincerest sympathies to an amazing family at the time of their enormous loss. I really enjoyed the time I had living by Lee and Alta when Wesley and I were married. They provided a great deal of advice and helped us when they could. I will miss him greatly and my heart goes out to the rest of the family. I wish I could be there.
