“ Dear old friends and neighbors, sad to think of Glenn not here anymore. You will miss him, and I am thinking of times past. Gerald would be on the phone after a rain to compare rain gage amounts and many other memories come to me. He was a good man and neighbor and fellow church member. Love all of you.

“ I loved doing Glenn's hair for many years. My favorite story was when he was a boy and the egg platter would be passed around once then twice and the third time he would empty what was left on the platter to his plate.
