“ Jerry, Justina and family, Hazel was a loving and caring person. I loved her and I loved being around her. She brought happiness to those she came in contact with. I never once heard her say a bad word about anyone. She loved her family dearly. Her grandchildren were the apple of her eye. May you find comfort in knowing what a good Christian and fine lady and Hazel was.

“ To Jerry and all the family, please accept our deepest sympathy and condolences on your loss. I lost my mother, Clara Mouser, this past summer after her being stricken with cancer. She was 85, would have been 86 in October '08. We've just got to be content that they had good long lives. Nothing can replace them. Peace be with you all.
