“ I have many fond memories of Faye as I have known her since I was a little girl. She was always such a kind and sweet lady, never saying a cross word towards anyone. I am a better person or having known her. May your memories of her carry you through this difficult time. Know that many people are thinking of you.

“ I have such fond memories of Faye. She was my beautician for years, we often had coffee together, and in later years, she was my neighbor. She had such a love for life, and was special to so many people. My thoughts are with you at this difficult time. Pat Hargis
