

Henry Ford Lawhorn

July 7, 1944 - October 19, 2017

Henry Ford Lawhorn, 73, of Kingston, Arkansas, died October 19, 2017 at Meadowview Healthcare and Rehab in Huntsville, Arkansas. He was born July 7, 1944 at Prairie Grove, Arkansas, the son of Charles and Ella Mae Gross Lawhorn. He was a farmer and was preceded in death by one daughter, Brenda Lawhorn. Survivors include: his wife, Linda Kay Smith Lawhorn of the home; three daughters and sons-in-law, Darlene and Paul Blevins of Tahlequah, Oklahoma, Michelle and Ray Plemmons of Springdale, Arkansas and Kelly and Don McGarrah of Huntsville, Arkansas; two stepsons, Ernest Thomas and John Thomas, both of Springdale, Arkansas; three brothers, Tom Lawhorn and Rob Lawhorn, both of Huntsville, Arkansas and Jim Lawhorn of Springdale, Arkansas; one sister, Ann Burrow of Fort Smith, Arkansas; fourteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Private services with interment in the Mossville Cemetery were under the direction of Brashears Funeral Home www.brashearsfuneralhome.net of Huntsville, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

MP

“ I sure do miss you daddy!!! I know you are not suffering anymore but I can't help but to feel selfish and wish you were still here!! I love you forever and always!!

Michelle Plemmons - November 03, 2017 at 12:00 AM

DA

“ ere is no more suffering dad now go rest high on that mountain. Love You. Darlene, Paul, Ashley, Brandon, Zach, Kaylee, Kenzie Lane, Shelby, Michael

Darlene - October 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ Linda...so sorry to hear of Henry's passing. May you be filled with God's peace to carry you thru this time of sorrow.

Betty Carlton - October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

CH

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with his family and friends.

Cindi Hoopingarner - October 23, 2017 at 12:00 AM

MP

“ Darlene, my father died at age 73, too. I kept thinking, "NO! He's too young to die!" But I let God console me and got peace in my heart. I pray you will also receive the consolation of God which He freely offers to all who will accept it. You are loved in Tahlequah and many are praying for you. ❤️🙏❤️🙏

Molly Peterson - October 23, 2017 at 12:00 AM