“ My thoughts go way back to when we first met. It hadn't been long when I moved into the neighborhood and I met Elaine. When she took me home to meet her parents of course I was surprised to find out that just like my dad, her dad was a truck driver. It wasn't long before Elaine and I was best friends and her mom and dad became my second mom and dad. Alvin you were greatly loved and you will be greatly missed. You and Margaret accepted me into your home, just as if I was family. I will remember the lessons you taught me some 40 years ago. Until we meet again in heaven, you will stay close in my heart
