

James Donald Damet

January 4, 1949 - August 11, 2014

James Donald Damet, 65, of Red Star, Arkansas, died August 11, 2014 in his home after a long battle with cancer. He was born January 4, 1949 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, the son of John Pershing and Olive Belle Vowell Damet. Jimis as he was known to many found his home in the Ozark Mountains of Madison County where he lived with his wife, Patricia and his daughters, Brianna and Maya Damet-Powell and founded Rocky Grove Sun Company. He helped provide solar electric power for many households and rural homes and was an early pioneer in sustainable energy and green living. He was a wonderful husband, devoted father, a good friend to many and a community leader. He will be greatly missed. He was preceded in death by his parents. Survivors include: his wife, Patricia Powell; his two daughters, Brianna and Maya Damet-Powell and his stepmother, Marilyn Damet. A memorial service will be held 3:00 P. M. Saturday, September 13, at the Headwaters Community Center in Red Star, Arkansas. Cremations arrangements were under the direction of Brashears Funeral Home www.brashearsfuneralhome.net of Huntsville, Arkansas.

“ Likely one of the most honest, cheerfull, loving, human beings I have ever known..

Compared to most people I know, and especially myself , He was a damn saint...

He met his wife on the streets of New Orleans where she was working an open seafood bar and smuggled us shrimp for free because she liked Jimis...long ago and far away... Sail on ,you wonderful man
