“ Jan was always full of giggles and laughter, even when she was struggling. An honor to have worked with her at Glad. A sweet soul. ”

“ We share this video in loving memory of Jan King. We will miss hearing Mama Jan’s laughter. Her encouragement for us to create new music. Her uniquely optimistic outlook on life. Her earth grounding, family centering, perspective on how to live a full life. Her amazing hog call. Her succotash and biscuits. Early morning conversations over coffee and late-night conversations about blues music and family stories. We will miss my Arkansas mother deeply and are blessed to have Jan King in our life. We love you Jan and Randy King. ”

“ Jan was my lead at LaBarge many years ago. But she was the best one anyone could ever have had. I loved her a lot! I remember one day she drove to work and she happened to lock her keys in her vehicle. She worried about it and called Steve Drake to come unlock it. As it turned out he just reached into the open window and handed her keys. She laughed at her self. I like someone who can laugh at themself. She was really precious!

“ Many summer days in Huntsville laughing and swimming and playing when our families would get together and all the cousins could have a good time. I still remember the butterball tshirt she gave mom. Her sweet soul and contagious laughter will always be a part of me.
