“ Marsha, Jimmy, Lynn, Glen, Danny and Kenny. I am so sorry for your loss. You all were such good neighbors through the years. I remember through the years when our family had a loss your mom and dad were the first to show up with food and drinks to help out during our difficult times. My prayer is that God will comfort each of you during this difficult time. Your sweet mother always had a smile on her face and a cheerful attitude, I know you will be able to remember all the wonderful memories. Love to each of you. Lyndell
