“ Jerry Cook, who I just referred to as "Dad" too because that is what his 4 kids called him, his kids were like the brothers and sisters I never had, he was a "real" person, down to earth, good old country boy, the kind of person that is great to know! He always made me laugh everytime I was ever around him! He always gave me a great big ol' hug! One of my favorite memories is when he made me laugh at his daughters wedding because she said thought her hair looked bad, he looked at me and we got so tickled, and at his son's wedding he was not comfortable where he was seated so right in the middle of the wedding he hopped a pew and landed on a corsage box and it made a loud noise, I about rolled out of my seat! He didn't try to put on airs, Jerry was just Jerry, I have memories staying at He and Kays house when I left college and lived with them a bit.

Today my heart is broken for Kay and his 3 children who meant alot in my life. With Sincere love, Jan

“ I was good friends with Robert and I want to give my condolences to you. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I used to live across from Southwest Jr. High school. It's been a long time since I've seen Robert's family but I thought about you often. I know God will give you the strength to get through this difficult time.
Love,
Rhonda
